A General Overview of a Wedding Ceremony Performance from the musician's perspective:

(arrive 1 to 1 ½ hours prior to the prelude to set-up and sound check, earlier if additionally performing at the cocktail hour)

Musical Prelude

30-45 min prelude while guests are arriving. Selections are up to the musician, but sometimes the bride & groom may choose the last song of the prelude leading into the actual ceremony. All song selections beyond this point are made by the bride & groom.

Seating of the Mothers

(traditional songs are a tasteful choice here)

Procession of the Wedding Party

(contemporary or traditional works well)

Presentation of the Bride

(entirely a personal choice)

Unity Candle or Sand Ceremony

(optional, not all weddings have this, but light, ambient background music works best)

Recessional

(One or two lively, upbeat selections)

(ideally the song selections are made at least 2-4 weeks prior to the big day to be well prepared, especially if a selection not from the list is requested)

Additional Classical, Latin, and guitar compositions by:
J.S. Bach, Baden Powell, Agustin Barrios, G. F. Handel, Erik Satie, Astor Piazzolla, Laurence Juber, and original compositions by J. Jeong
